EXCITEMENT AT WASHINGTON PARK

The Chicago race-going patrons, or some of them, when they think the judges are wrong and they are right, will howl, no matter be it at Lakeside, Hawthorne, Harlem or Washington Park. Consequently yesterday at the latter place about 3,500 persons, ninety-nine per cent of whom hardly knew what they were howling about, created an uncalled for scene on the grounds of the aristocratic south side club.

People that go to the races should have perfect confidence in the judges, who, as a rule are men of much racing experience and high class and have a much keener knowledge of the sport than has the enthusiast who only attends the races once in a while and who is always influenced by the way he or she bets their money. The cheaper element that go to the races over the Chicago tracks seem to be highly delighted whenever a finish is close and the horse's number on which they are betting is not hung out, to raise as much noise as they possibly can. They howl and hoot at the judges, and in fact do almost everything but mob the officials.

Such a disturbance as was raised at Washington Park yesterday has happened time and again around Harlem and Hawthorne, but never yet has a decision been changed, so it seems that the few who insist in expressing themselves so boisterously, would learn from experience that "Comanche war whoops" do not alter competent judges' decisions and would try at least to show some courtesy to the promoters of "the sport of kings."

The finish over which the crowd had its noisy matinee came out of the fourth race, and was between Sim W., ridden by Knight, and Pope Leo, with Bullman up. It is needless to say that the latter was the one that the crowd pinned its faith to, and he was the betting favorite at 8 to 5. Sim W. was backed and backed strongly, but the noisy contingent was down on Pope Leo and Bullman. Sim W. swung into the stretch and headed for home about a length in front of Pope Leo, but he was tiring and inch by inch Pope Leo and Bullman overhauled him until twenty yards from home where the pair were about on even terms. From then to the wire it was nod and nod and both horses were tired enough to lie down. Bullman seemed to fairly lift Pope Leo and rode a masterly finish, but little Knight was also quite busy himself and at the very last stride he let go of Sim W.'s head and the latter's white nose caught the judge's eye first. In the next stride past the wire Pope Leo was in front, but he was just a trifle too late to get the decision.

Besides the Sim W.-Pope Leo tight fit there was another close finish, and in this instance the crowd had a kick coming, as Master Knight on the 3 to 5 favorite, threw the race away. However, the pikers seldom back 3 to 5 shots, and the better class of race goers that do never think of raising a disturbance. Knight's carelessness was certainly inexcusable. He was on much the best horse—Mr. Brown—and at the sixteenth post was winning easily, but a drowsy spell seemed to overtake him at the end, and before he awoke to what was going on the wire was reached and Dissolute was there first. Rome Respass, who owns Mr. Brown, and for whom Knight rides, bet heavily on the colt and after the race was very sore, but never said a word. Possibly the judges will punish Master Knight for his carelessness. The boy is one of the most honest jockeys riding, but many scandal mongers made insinuating remarks after the race about the ride, but they were far out of line, for whenever Knight rides a horse he is always doing his best and has no knowledge whatever of the betting ring.

It was through pure luck that Winkfield on Dissolute won the first race, but the boy came right back and, favored by Dame Fortune, captured the second event with Likeness. The race was at five furlongs, for two-year-old fillies, and each, with the exception of School for Scandal, who had two pounds overweight, carried 110 pounds. The latter, however, despite the overweight, was made favorite, but, opening at 6 to 5, receded to 11 to 5. Caywood rode School for Scandal, and had he not been an expert the filly surely would have thrown him and run away. She acted like a crazy horse at the post, running, jumping, bucking—and, in fact, doing everything mean but lie down and roll over. Caywood was on to stay, though, and managed to get the filly off with a running start and was up in third position to the head of the stretch, where the favorite died away and finished last. As to Likeness' win it was certainly very lucky. She was well up passing the half-mile ground, but about the three furlong post got badly shut off and dropped back to sixth place, seemingly beaten. On the stretch turn, however, all the other starters swung clear to the outside, leaving Winkfield and Likeness plenty of room to come through on the rail, thereby saving a lot of ground and eventually winning in a drive by an open length. Princess Tatyana was second and Fancy Wood third.

The mile and a quarter selling race, although only four horses started, furnished plenty of room for speculation, each of the quartette being heavily backed. It was always even money against the favorite, Russell R. He labored to some extent in the going, which was a trifle cuppy, and finished absolutely last. Arthur Behan, a shifty, good-looking black colt by Hindoo—Gammacita went to the front as soon as the barrier ascended and, setting a pace to suit himself, won handily by a length from The Bobby in 2:06, which was a cracking good performance for a selling plater.

The cheapest lot of horses at the track came together in the fifth race and as is always the case in cheap fields everyone has a "good thing." There were eight starters in this race and there was just eight "good things." La Vega, the favorite, with Harshberger up, proved the best and won off by himself after luckily getting through on the inside on the far turn.

Up to the last race Bullman had not landed a winner, but in that event he came home in front with flying colors on George Krats. It was Bullman's foxy ride more than George Krats' ability that won. Sam McKeever, with Mathews up, got to and passed Krats about the eighth post and Bullman played an old trick. He took George Krats up a trifle, leading Mathews to think that his horse was winning easily. Mathews bit at the bait like a hungry fish and stopped riding Sam McKeever. This was just what Bullman wanted him to do, and quicker than a flash he started to work again on George Krats, and the gelding, responding with one last effort, managed to get up in time to win by a neck. It was a clever steal on Bullman's part and worthy of all the applause it brought forth.

COMMANDO'S WAYS.

Commando, of the Keene stable, is a wonder in more ways than one. He is fleet as the wind and runs kindly. He is good to look at, and will probably prove a stayer. In the stable he is kind as a cat, and in the paddock fools with his attendants like a big dog, nosing and rubbing against them in the most amiable manner. At the post he is a fiend incarnate, looking around for some one to kick the "stiffin' outer," as one boy puts it. He is vicious to a degree. This is probably nervousness, and under kind treatment and proper barrier practice he should round to all right.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Everyone knows "Mike" Clancy, and everyone will be pleased to hear that his bread winner "Maxie" is back in his stable. It is an equine romance! Maximo Gomez was taken away from him out of a selling race, and "Mike" has been going around with blood in his eyes ever since. Hope rose high in his bosom on several occasions when "Maxie" was entered in a selling race but the blue pencil did its fatal work and Clancy was not given a chance. On Friday Maximo Gomez won the last race just as he pleased after Lindula had made the pace all around. As the numbers went up, a vast crowd surged as one man around the judges' stand. They knew there was "blud on tha mune," and went to see the fun. So excited was Clancy he could not wait to go around but vaulted like an athlete over the high fence and commenced bidding. He is not a rich man and was nervous as to whether he could last to the limit. Then a certain wealthy owner whispered in his ear: "Go as far as you like. I'll see you through!" Then a radiance spread over Clancy's face and he let himself out. First $1,800, $1,905, $2,005, $2,205—the odd $5 being the "dodger" of F. M. Taylor, the current owner. Then "Mike" was mad. "Twenty-fove hundred," said he with a whip of emphasis, and Taylor gasped and showed his hand. "He's yours." Then the crowd yelled and cheered. Clancy never heard them. He had "Maxie's" halter in his hand, and "Maxie's" nose rubbing against his shoulder, and he knew nothing more and cared less. That night "Maxie" slept in his old stall, and it is rumored that he had a two-legged companion—but that's another story.—Spirit of the Times.

Among the stables which will bear watching at Brighton Beach is that of Phil T. Chinn, much strengthened by recent purchases. He has eleven youngsters under the care of Luther Dickinson. They are all well bred and good looking, racy animals. They are: Arachue, b. f., by St. Saviour—Distaff; Church Lunch, ch. f., by Chorister—Frugal; Crowned Queen, br. f., by Tournament—Citronella; Elsburg, b. f., by Tournament—Dutch Flag; Gold Elsie, b. f., by St. Leonards—Ventnor; Lucette, br. f., by Tournament—Vandura; Lucy Leonards, ch. f., by St. Leonards—Lucy Wallace; Lynette, br. f., by Tournament—Maurine; More Than Queen, b. f., by Tournament—Splendor; Nethersole, b. f., by Tournament—Fairy Slipper, and Sister Dolorosa, by Chorister—Fair Recluse.

Ernest Brandon, for many years in the employ of the Coney Island Jockey Club and other racing associations, died suddenly of apoplexy at the Eureka Hotel, Sheephead Bay. No clue could be found in his effects as to the address of any relatives. Mr. Brandon issued the owners' and trainers' tickets at Westchester and Brooklyn and had charge of the checking up of tickets at Sheephead Bay for many years. He was a man well liked by his associates and generally esteemed and respected.

One of the uncertainties of the horse world was illustrated a few days ago when P. Lorillard sold The Chamberlain for $700. This horse is by Lisbon—Patrimony, the brother of Keenan. He worked exceedingly well last year and was, apparently, full of promise. John E. Madden had him entered in the Futurity, the English Derby, and a number of valuable events, and his purchase price was $20,000. He started a number of times, but was a failure. Some day, in an obscure field, he may, possibly, paralyze everything in sight. It is a way these castoffs have.

The horses belonging to Baker & Gentry, a firm, the very mention of whose name in racing circles hitherto has been the synonym of good luck, have been shipped to Lexington to recover from the evil effects of a wholesale attack of catarrhal fever. This is the first year's bad luck the stable has ever suffered, but there may be some compensation in having their capable trainer, Jack Baker, on hand to try out the yearlings which are now being galloped on the Kentucky Association track. Anna Bain had only a mild attack of the disease, and, with anything like their usual break in luck, the flying daughter of Kingston will make up for lost time during the autumn racing season.—Thoroughbred Record.

Winner—B. c, by Bramble—Lucy Adelaide.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. The next three were doing their best. Dissolute won a lucky race. He got away well in his stride, was well ridden, but at the head of the stretch was clearly beaten. At this point Knight, on Mr. Brown, went to the front like a flash and from all indications was winning easily. The boy, however, went to sleep in the final sixteenth and Dissolute, coming with a rush on the inside, stole the race. Midwood ran a good race. Still, it was a bad lot that finished behind him. Our Nellie seemed sore. Etta seems to be of no present account.

Scratched—19215 John Yerkes, 104.
Overweights—Dissolute, 5 pounds.
Dissolute, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Mr. Brown, place, out. Midwood, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Rn. f, by Likely—Illisee.
Went to post at 3:05. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive. Liveness was well ridden, but like Dissolute, was lucky to win. The filly dropped back on the far turn and seemed beaten, but rounding into the stretch the leaders swung wide and left plenty of room for Winkfield to come through on the rail, which he did. Princess Tatyana had no excuses, other than a bad ride, and ran her best race. Fancy Wood lost the race by swinging extremely wide on the stretch turn. Tenny Belle is a speedy filly, but can not go the route. She was trying to run out all the way. Telephone Girl was in a pocket for the first three furlongs. School For Scandal bucked and kicked and raised all kinds of disturbance at the post, and after showing some speed in the race quit badly in the stretch and was eased up at the end.

Scratched—18952 Bonnie Lissak, 110; 19168 Kohnwreath, 110.
Overweights—School For Scandal, 2 pounds.

Winner—Blk. c, by Hindoo—Gammacita.
Went to post at 3:40. Off at the first break to a good start. Won handily; the others were doing their best. Arthur Behan showed the most speed, was cleverly rated in front by Devin, and at no part of the race was he fully extended. He is a useful colt and in this instance ran a high-class race. The Bobby had no excuses and ran a good race for him. Espionage could not keep up, and is perhaps stalling off. The track was a trifle cuppy and in it Russell R. seemed to labor all the way and, everything considered, he about ran his race.

Scratched—(19170) Milwaukee, 109; (19171) Clay Poynter, 106.

Winner—B. g, by Cortez—Mary Williams.
Went to post at 4:10. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a long drive of two; third and fourth were driving also. Sim W. was fit and ready to run the race of his life, was also finely ridden, but won simply through the action of the nod. It was a very close finish, and only those who were in a direct line with the wire could tell which horse won. Pope Leo, under a powerful ride, finished with a tremendous rush, but could not quite get up in time to win. The Pride was outrun all the way, but was gaining on the leaders at the end. Hermoso, as usual, flattered his backers for about a half mile, then quit. Flamaro was beaten off all the way.

Scratched—19169 Bitter Root, 104; 19239 Goebel, 107; (19191) Crosby, 99; (19125) Headwater, 109.

Winner—B. c, by Devotee—Carola.
Went to post at 4:35. Off at the second break to a good start. Won easily; second and third were doing their best. La Vega was the best of a bad lot and won a lucky race. He was last on the rail going down the backstretch, but Harshberger took a chance to get through, succeeded and after that La Vega had everything his own way. Tim Gainay had clear sailing and ran a fairly good race. Crane had all kinds of bad racing luck and was also poorly ridden. Tony Honing is a slow beginner and made up ground throughout. Jim W. showed speed and quit with his mouth wide open. Johnny McHale seemed to have a winning chance on the far turn, but hung in the stretch.

La Vega, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Tim Gainay, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Crane, show, 3 to 5. Johnny McHale, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g, by The Kaiser—Mamie Cole.
Went to post at 5:10. Off at the third break to a good start. Won driving to the limit; second the same. George Krats ran a good, game race under a perfect ride. Bullman had the gelding doing his best all the way and stole a march on Mathews and Sam McKeever in the stretch. The latter horse was perhaps the best and had his jockey gone on about his business in the stretch after he had passed George Krats the chances are that he would have won. Einstein ran a fair race, but in comparison with the last race in which he and George Krats met, the latter finished too far in front of Einstein for the race to be true. The other three were beaten off at the finish, but both Van Horebeke and Ailenna showed speed.

Scratched—18639 A Se Ti, 96.
Corrected weights—George Krats, 111.
Overweights—Ailenna, 24 pounds.
George Krats, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Sam McKeever, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Einstein, show, 2 to 5. Ailenna, place, 6 to 5; show, 7 to 10.

Off last, he had to be taken the overland route. He seemed like a winner at the head of the stretch when he swerved. Winnebejour did well, but wants lighter weight.
